Charles McKinney

HOW PARKS SHAPE THE CITY

As the Principal Urban Designer for Parks, Charles McKinney is leading the preparation of Master plans for flagship parks and new acquisitions.

He is the prior Chief of Design at Parks. For four years, he provided design direction for landscape and architecture projects throughout New York City. The award winning Design Manual for 21st Century Parks was prepared under his direction in collaboration with the Design Trust for Public Space.

As Administrator of Riverside Park from 1984 to 2001, he guided the operation and restoration of our 316-acre landmarked park.
