

Monday Night at the Master Riverside Lobby

February 10, 2014 7:30pm

Mary Beth Kelly, MSW, has been a resident of the Upper West Side since 1976. She and her husband, Carl Henry Nacht, MD, an attending internist at St. Luke's-Roosevelt Hospital, moved to The Master Building in 1995 with their two children Zoe and Asher, who were in elementary school at the time.

Propelled by certain events, she has become an advocate for The Livable Streets movement and serves on the Board of Directors of Transportation Alternatives. Mary Beth has a private practice in psychotherapy and is currently pursuing an MFA in Writing and Literature at Bennington College.

She will be reading a recently published piece titled, Collision, a Memoir.
